

ANTELOPE P.R.I.D.E.

Ultimately, everyone is responsible for their own behavior and how they participate within the school community impacts their opportunity to find success and affords others the opportunity as well. The Seligman Community Behavior Matrix is a compilation of behaviors that we would like to highlight on our campus and we will be looking for everyone in our school community to be upholding these values.

		Antelope P.R.I.D.E
Seligman Community Behavior Matrix
P ositive	R espectful	I nvolved	D etermined		E xcellent
Maintain a positive attitude Say please and thank you Use appropriate language and voice level Encourage and compliment others Believe in yourself Be a friend to others	Respect one another & each other's property Respect your environment Use equipment and materials properly/ return on time and undamaged Keep hands and feet to yourself Dress appropriately Hold doors for others	Wholeheartedly participate in school and class Be an amazing audience Be a good sport and include others in activities Make your school an inspiring place Clean up after yourself Share your ideas	Be prepared Use your time wisely Set and achieve goals Motivate yourself and others Be persistent – give it your all! Be a leader		Show spirit at school events Be sincere Succeed through collaboration Explore your interests Set high expectations for yourself & others Honor privacy	